Fiat Lux

Dreams of future days soar high,
Look we now to golden sky.
Songs unfold; our mem'ries sear,
Come before us, disappear.
Childhood dreams so sweet, so true,
Tumble back thru golden hue.
Seasons pass and change our ways,
Rushing then to older phase.
Years reveal the child that was,
Mould a youth for greater cause—
Cause of nations led by man.
Give us faith in God's great plan.
Brotherhood must serve us, too,
Stir our hopes and dreams anew.
Peace we hope to keep on earth,
So nations live to show their worth.
Joy we hold within our hands
To scatter over tortured lands.
Now it is for fame we sigh;
March we on with steadfast eye,
Hold aloft our torch of light.
Guide us, God, to know the right!

—Prudence Percy.

Class Ode of 1950

ROBERT FOREST

PAULINE ANDERSON

Words by ROBERT FOREST

Music by PAULINE ANDERSON

Now school-day lanes have all been trod;
New devious paths confront our view.
How shall we choose our future road?
Fair golden routes are found by few.
Now fame and wealth may pave our way,
But yet we'll walk with humbleness,
And e'er recall each teacher kind,
Whose guidance taught us gentleness.

Oh, school beloved, to you we bow;
We're thankful for the friends you gave
And grateful for all fine ideals
Instilled to guide us, and to save.
The hour for parting has arrived.
Farewell to student jollity,
And if great yearnings lure us far—
Farewell, until eternity.

—Robert Forest

Class History

A mighty Hand, from an exhaustless Urn,
Pours forth the never-ending Flood of Years,
Among the nations. How the rushing waves
Bear all before them! On their foremost edge,
And there alone is Life. The Present there
Tosses and foams, and fills the air with roar
Of mingled noises. There are they who toil,
And they who strive, and they who feast, and they
Who hurry to and fro. The sturdy swain—
Woodman and delver with the spade—is there,
And busy artisan beside his bench,
And pallid student with his written roll.
A moment on the mounting billow seen,
The flood sweeps over them and they are gone.

"The Flood of Years," William Cullen Bryant.

It was a mere three years ago that we, the Class of 1950, stepped forth into the breath-taking environment of high school life, an existence which was to prove to be full of responsibilities. These three years have been, to say the least, intense. We have found our lives to be rather well-balanced, for we have experienced the intrinsic values to be found in study, athletics, and social endeavors. Our days have been full of friendship. We have been hopeful—and happy; we have been serious and sad in turn. We have grown physically and intellectually. Our personalities have developed. We have learned, somewhat, the ways of men and women the world over. Nature has amazed us with her power. We have acquired much from the past and the present. We have placed our trust in the future.

As is usually the case, our class has experienced many changes. We began our Sophomore year under the new headmaster Mr. Ralph S. Frellick. We have, indeed, benefited greatly from his kind and helpful assistance. Then, in our Junior year we regretted the resignation of E. Marion Roberts, director of athletics. Mr. Roberts had served the high school well for thirty-five years. Old B. H. S. will miss this capable member of its faculty. The year 1949 brought the addition of six new members to our faculty: Mr. Cook, Mr. Ramacorti, Mr. Metcalf, Mr. Smith, Mr. Ford, and Mr. Rourke.

We must not soon forget "Brocktonia," that faithful recorder of news, and its capable staff. During our three years at high school it has kept us well-informed on the happenings and highlights of school affairs. A new and improved "Brocktonia" made its debut the last of March. Better and different items were included. And lest we forget—thanks to the yearbook staff, the workers behind the scenes. They have had the difficult task of summarizing the cherished memories of our three years and of putting these remembrances down in print. Congratulations and many thanks to both of these able groups and their advisors.

Every phase of athletic endeavor has shown our young men and women to be of excellent caliber. We have had fine records in football, basketball, and baseball. The hockey and track teams, along with the cross country and tennis teams, have shown keen sportsmanship and lively spirit. In fact, all of our athletic groups may be proud of the way in which they represented our school.

November found many anxious Seniors trying out for parts in the class play. The members of the cast must have been aptly chosen, for "Junior Miss"

Class Prophets

Second Row, Left to Right: Peter Vuyanovich, Donald Lindgren, Philip MacConnell, and Robert McRae.

For I dipt into the future, far as human eye could see,
Saw the Vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be;
Saw the heavens fill with commerce,
    argosies of magic sails,
Pilots of the purple twilight, dropping down with costly bales;
Heard the heavens fill with shouting, and there rain'd a ghastly dew
From the nations' airy navies grappling
    in the central blue;
Far along the world-wide whisper of the south-wind rushing warm,
With the standards of the peoples
    plunging thro' the thunder-storm;
Till the war-drum throb'd no longer,
    and the battle-flags were furl'd
In the Parliament of man, the Federation of the world.

—From "Locksley Hall," by Alfred Tennyson.

proved to be a definite success. It showed not only a fine dramatic ability upon the part of those in the play, but also excellent work done by those concerned with the coaching and production ends of the presentation. The Junior-Senior social, "The Snowball Prom," afforded us a pleasant evening. Present at the dance was one of the largest gatherings of the past few years. Very beautiful scenery, painted by the art classes, under the direction of Mr. Long, provided a most cheerful and attractive setting for the promenade.

To the faculty we express our sincere gratitude; to those who have helped us in our upward struggle, we express our heartfelt thanks; to those coming after us we offer encouragement. With the fates we leave our future. Let us not forget our motto:

High ideals, greater fields.

The accompanist is Claire Cahill.

The Galloneers

This outstanding choral group, composed of four quartets, made its debut in Brockton last year. Although the Galloneers are still on an amateur standing, their professional presentations merited them more than fifteen invitations to appear at various church affairs and before such organizations as the P. M. Club, Brockton Teachers' Association, Brockton Woman's Club and the Whitman Woman's Club. They concluded a very successful year by participating in the New England Music Festival at Hamden, Connecticut.

The accompanist for the group is Claire Cahill.

Cheerleaders

Mr. Montgomery's colorful organization, the Brockton High cheerleaders, was truly a coach's dream. Combining beauty with energy and inspiration, our exuberant packages of personality contributed greatly to the school's successes both on and off the athletic fields. Peggy Sullivan, Lorraine LaBelle, Irene Covert, Patricia McMahon, Joan Walsh, Ginny Benn, Nini Lyons, Bernadine Gurechis, Pat Crocker, and Norma Hill were the spirited students who so enthusiastically incited pride and sportsmanship among the student spectators, and constantly encouraged the athletic teams they supported.

Football

The Brockton High School football team of 1949-1950 was one of whose fight and determination we should all be proud. With only two regulars returning from the outstanding team of 1948-1949, Coach Frank Saba and his assistants, George Ramacorti and William Parsons, still moulded together another good Red and Black eleven. Although our team was handicapped by injuries to key men, Brockton did well during the gruelling campaign by winning five games, losing only three, and tying one. With the mercury-footed Dick Beals, and the hard-running Gene Franciosi augmenting Coach Saba's T-formation ground attack, and with such stalwarts in the line as Mike Cappiello, Emelio Cerci, Lloyd Tighe and Vic Berlin, Brockton was a powerful team at all times throughout the season.

Basketball

This year's Brockton High School basketball team, although not a participant in the Tech Tourney, displayed true courage and sportsmanship at all times. It was only because of some close defeats near the end of the season that our team failed to receive an invitation to this cherished tournament. The forwards were the fast and deceptive Ronnie Jones (captain), the aggressive Don Cudmore, and Matt Crimmins, who excelled on the rebounds. The pivot post was held down by the towering Ralph Brown, who was also high scorer for the season. Juniors Jack Hopkins and Buddy Dunsing worked from the guard slots where their superb shooting and play-making resulted in their being elected co-captains for the coming season. Other members of our team of 1950 were Eddie Adams, Wayne Asker, John Egger, Bernie Gilmetti, Bob Ippolito, and John Tosca. Richard Cudmore was the student manager.

Baseball

Baseball has again started, and this year's team will be out to defend the Eastern Massachusetts championship crown which it has held the past two years. With Captain Mike Cappiello the only regular returning, Coach Charles E. Holden will field a team composed mainly of former Junior Legion and second team members. From the enthusiasm shown on Eldon B. Keith Field thus far, it is evident that another banner season will be ours this year. The squad hopes to offset its inexperience with speed, hustle, and determination.

Track

The Brockton High outdoor track team, defending state schoolboy champs, has entered another spring schedule under the able tutelage of Coach Howard Sandrock. The team has made an auspicious debut by trouncing Belmont High in an initial dual meet. With a large majority of the team composed of underclassmen, Coach Sandrock has high hope of developing another team of championship calibre for next season.

Among the outstanding performers are dashmen Gene Franciosi, Dick Beals, and Al Polisenio, low hurdler Bob O'Brien, and shot putter Bob Lanzetta. Bob Cahill and Fred Davis in the 220 yard run, Ed Moberg in the 440 yard run, and milers Dick Ripley and Joe Crocker are also expected to be consistent scorers on the cinders for Brockton High.

Hockey

Being hampered by lack of ice and practice, Coach Carl MacPherson's hockey team was able to play only four games this year. Although the team was inexperienced, it managed to beat Whitman 4-2 and 3-2 while losing to North Quincy 3-2 and 2-1 in close, hard-fought contests.

The Brockton pucksters opened all their games with Bill Nawrocki centering for wingers John Hatch and Bud Johnson in the first line, ironmen performers Roger Simmons and John Blacevicz at defense, and the capable Malcolm Snyder in the nets. The only others to see much action were Charlie Sample, Laurie Hatch, and Tony Kazlauskas, but there were also several underclassmen who showed a great deal of promise for the future.

Tennis

The Brockton High varsity tennis team, full of confidence for a second successful year, has just entered another season. The team, coached by August H. Wigren, has been zealously practicing on the Y. M. C. A. tennis courts, and hopes to repeat its South Shore Tournament victory of last year. The netmen's schedule will include such formidable opponents as Norwood, Quincy, Milton, Hingham, and North Quincy.

Golf

Under the able leadership of Coach Lloyd Avery, the golfers of Brockton High have started the season in a successful manner by beating the perennially powerful Brookline High. The linksmen are also scheduled to play such strong teams as Coyle, Watertown, Barnstable, and Dartmouth.

The team includes Ed Noone (co-captain), John Hatch (co-captain), Harold Willis, Joe Powers, Francis McDonnell, and John Tosca. Others who will be of great help to the team are Dick Porter, Laurie Hatch, Sterling Ingram, Alan Dushman, Bob McRae, and Tom Williams.

Cross Country

With an inexperienced line-up dominated by sophomores, the Brockton High School cross country team had little success in posting a winning record. In dual meet competition Coach Harry H. Reuell's "hill and dalers" defeated Middleboro while losing to Braintree and dropping verdict to Quincy and Weymouth. The locals did not compete in the State meet because of the death of Mayor Downey, and an alumni game was called off because of the lack of graduate runners available.

Girls' Sports Council

Every all-round sportswoman at Brockton High has the ambition to be a member of the Sports Council. The organization is composed of girls who passed an examination given at the end of the course involving ethics and methods of conducting the various sports.

The council members decide any questions concerning the activities of the girls' department of physical education. They officiate in the sports and also serve as coaches or officials during the junior high school girls' basketball season.

"B" Sweater Seniors

Hockey Team

Basketball Team

KORPAK CORE PACKING - the Super Concrete Block

Visibly — and because of hidden values — Korpak Blocks are far superior to the ordinary kind.

Oscillating cores give 5000 impacts per minute to a rich mixture of high grade aggregate and cement. It means greater density — more strength — higher water-resistant values.

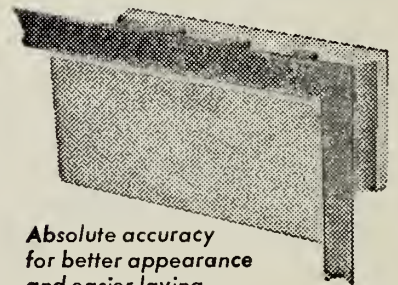

Precision machines assure accuracy in all dimensions and streamlined symmetry. Cleanly troweled faces. Larger cavities for lighter weight and insulation properties.

Get the best — insist on Korpak. Prices are right.

Keyed mortar bed puts more strength into the wall.

Absolute accuracy for better appearance and easier laying.

Multi-directional packing gives extra strength and water-resistant values.
